

ESD Okayama Award 2022 — Application Guide —

The world has become more intertwined and borderless, and what happens at one place affects other parts of the world today. The various challenges that we face, such as poverty, climate change and loss of biodiversity cannot be solved alone. In order to facilitate action to build sustainable societies around the world, the 17 global goals of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) were created to implement in the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda, which was adopted by the world leaders in September 2015 at the UN Summit. Furthermore, the new international framework of Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) has started since January 2020, which is named “ESD for 2030”. Promoting Education for ESD is now considered critical not only to ensure quality of education but also to achieve all the goals. ESD is expected to be promoted more than ever before.

In Okayama, the Okayama ESD Promotion Commission was established in 2005, in conjunction with the launch of “The UN Decade of ESD”, and its Okayama ESD Project was created. Since then, the diverse stakeholders have been working together to promote ESD in the region. Okayama City was the host city for the Stakeholder Meetings of the UNESCO World Conference on ESD in 2014 and played a leading role in accelerating collaborative actions among people working for ESD.

To build a momentum, Okayama city launched the ESD Okayama Award in 2015. The ESD Okayama Award is organized by Okayama City and the ESD Okayama Award Steering Board, composed of organizations which have been promoting ESD in Japan and around the world. The ESD Okayama Award aims to showcase good ESD practices worldwide, and also to further advance SDGs since ESD is a key enabler of the achievement of all targets of SDGs.

We sincerely look forward to receiving your application.

※Only one application per organization can be accepted.

※Projects eligible for this award are ongoing and have been running for at least two years as of April 2022.

※Projects in the planning stages are not eligible.

※The organizations that have won the ESD Okayama Award in the past cannot apply with the award-winning projects, but can apply with other projects.

◆ Prize

US $3,000

※The prize should be used to expand the project.

◆ Number of Award Winning Projects

The ESD Okayama Award will be given to up to two projects.

◆ Selection Criteria

The ESD Okayama Award will be given to outstanding projects that can serve as global models contributing to promotion of ESD in local communities. Submitted projects will be reviewed by ESD experts based on the following criteria:

Vision	The project outlines local issues to realize a sustainable society, and objectives are clearly stated.
Collaboration	The project has a clear implementation structure with various collaborating stakeholders (individuals and organizations).
Integration	The project integrates environmental, social, and economic dimensions.
Innovation	The project demonstrates innovative approaches and methods to promote ESD.
Status of Implementation	The project has a track record of activities and documentations including feedback and evaluation of audiences and stakeholders.
Empowerment	The project takes educational approaches such as interactive methods for problem-solving and promoting actions to shape a sustainable future. The project also leads to behavior change of individuals, including the transformation of values, attitudes and actions, and to the empowerment of local communities.
Future Strategy	The project is expected to be expanded in the future and bring positive influences to other communities as well.

Selection Process

- Submitted projects will go through the First Round of Selection by the secretariat.
- Final Selection will be made by judges from the projects that passed the preliminary selection process.
